VOLUME LXVI.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 29, 1865.

NUMBER 130

PUBLISHED (DAILY) BY EDGAR SNOWDEN, SR.
OFFICE—No. 104, King street, over French's Book Store.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The American Medical Association, lately in session at Boston, have dismissed charges against Surgeon General Barnes for alleged unprofessional conduct in consulting an irregular practitioner in the case of Secretary Seward and his son. Reason—emphatic denial of the charges by Dr. Barnes.

The Vermont Democratic State Convention met at Burlington, yesterday, and passed resolutions "reaffirming the Democratic principles," and "declaring confidence in the wise and constitutional measures of reconstruction adopted by President Johnson."

A destructive fire broke out in Black Rock, New York, yesterday afternoon, totally destroying Pratt & Co's. iron works. Loss $150,000—insured for half that sum. The New York Central railroad bridge at that place was also destroyed. Sparks from a passing tug-boat occasioned the fire.

A rather extensive oil bubble has just collapsed in New York. A man named W. D. Mann, formerly a colonel in the army, has swindled a large number of confiding people out of the sum of $50,000 in the shape of stock subscribed to the "United Service Petroleum and Mining Company."

It is reported that Henry S. Foote, ex-United States Senator, now in Montreal, Canada, has applied for pardon.

The steamer Huntsville, from Aspinwall, has arrived. Among her passengers are Gen. Daniel E. Sickles and staff, and crew of the wrecked steamer Golden Rule.

It is positively ascertained that there has been no consultation by the Executive branch of the Government as to when, where, and how Jefferson Davis is to be tried.

Some persons have been in the habit of placing revenue stamps upon their letters. The Post Office Department does not recognize these stamps for payment of postal dues. All letters thus stamped will be sent to the dead letter office.

The infant son of the Prince of Wales is to be christened Albert Christian Emmanuel. He will be known under the name of Prince Christian.

Private letters from Wilmington, North Carolina, say that a large number of negroes are there who should be returned to their homes and who are desirous of so doing, but are compelled to remain in consequence of a want of transportation. The mortality among them is very great.

The New York Times contains an elaborate statement as to the frauds by which the Government has been so badly mulcted under the Internal Revenue law.

In the window of a house at Greenwich, England, is the following extraordinary announcement: "Tea made with shrimps, at ninepence a head."

The last battle of the war was fought on Friday, the 12th of May, on the shores of the Rio Grande, not far from Pala Alto.

NOTICE.

Having purchased the TAILORING ES-TABLISHMENT of Mr. Daniel Shay, under the Mansion House, Fairfax street, I propose to maintain the former reputation of the House, pledging myself to keep always on hand, as good an assortment, upon as reasonable terms
as any other first class establishment, in this,
or the neighboring cities.

MR. S. E. RIDGLEY will continue as CUT-TER, and warrants satisfaction. I respectfully solicit a continuation of the liberal patronage
extended to the former proprietors, W. & A.
Murray.
